

English for Specific Purposes 50 hours course

English for Specific Purposes (ESP) is a learner-centered approach to teaching English as an additional language which focuses on developing English communication skills in a specific discipline, such as accounting, management, education, law, engineering, IT technology, health and medicine.

Participants are also exposed to international culture and real world communication practice.

These courses focus on developing the language skills needed for success on the job for participants who seek to enter or advance in their professions. Emphasis is given on learning language structures and vocabulary common to the professional areas of the course participants.

How you will Benefit (Objectives):

- Use appropriate style and tone for professional discipline;
- Build your English vocabulary for effective writing;
- Take advantage of custom-designed instruction materials;
- Enhance your productivity, job performance and self-confidence.

Who should participate? The workshop is designed specifically for professionals who are non-native English speakers. In just three months, you'll improve your ability to write in English and enhance your reading comprehension and verbal expressions as well. Writing clearly and correctly in the professional world is critical to your success!

Applicants should have a Certificate of English language of an "O" level or IGCSE with at least "C", or equivalent.

Tutors: All instructors in the Adult Education program have Masters level qualifications in English and specialist training in the teaching of English as a second/foreign language. They are likewise experienced University level language teachers.

Learning Approach: Learner centered approach with individual hands-on experience case studies, group analysis and real work simulations.

Groups: Each group will have a minimum of 10 participants and a maximum of 15 participants. The course is offered twice a week with 2 hour afternoon sessions for three months.

The cost for this program is €400 (€8/hr) payable in two installments.
